AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The court inquires as to whether there is any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered as follows:

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 121 months on Count Three of the Indictment. The court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that defendant be designated to the Terminal Island Federal Facility.

Upon release from imprisonment, defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 20 years, under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. Defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. Defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and from abusing alcohol and prescription medications during the period of supervision.
4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of defendant and defense counsel, may place defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Probation Director and Probation Officer.

USA vs. JESSE FERNANDO PEREZDocket No.: CR 15-0533-FMO

5. As directed by the Probation Officer, defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of defendant's drug and alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3672. Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment, as directed by the Probation Officer.
6. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
7. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from defendant.
8. Defendant shall possess and use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs), which have been disclosed to the Probation Officer upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions are to be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. Computers and computer-related devices are personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, cellular telephones, and digital storage media, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers.
9. All computers, computer-related devices, and their peripheral equipment, used by defendant, shall be subject to search and seizure. This shall not apply to items used at defendant's employment site, which are maintained and monitored by the employer.
10. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Computer Monitoring Program. Defendant shall pay the cost of the Computer Monitoring Program, in an amount not to exceed $32 per month per device connected to the internet.
11. Defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without warrant, by any law enforcement or Probation Officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by defendant, or by any Probation Officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.
12. Defendant shall participate in a psychological counseling or psychiatric treatment or a sex offender treatment program, as approved and directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of such program. The Probation Officer shall disclose the pre-sentence report or any previous mental health evaluations or reports to the treatment provider.
13. As directed by the Probation Officer, defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating defendant's psychological/psychiatric disorder(s) to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
14. Defendant shall register as a sex offender, and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where he resides, where he is an employee, and where he is a student, to the extent the registration procedures have been established in each jurisdiction. When registering for the first time, defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction in which the conviction occurred if different from his jurisdiction of residence. Defendant shall provide proof of registration to the Probation Officer within three days of release from imprisonment.
15. Defendant shall not view or possess any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games, depicting and/or describing child pornography, as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 2256(2). This condition does not prohibit defendant from possessing materials solely because they are necessary to, and used for, a collateral attack, nor does it prohibit him from possessing materials prepared or used for the purposes of his Court-mandated sex offender treatment, when defendant's treatment provider or the Probation Officer has approved of his possession of the materials in advance.

16. Defendant shall not own, use or have access to the services of any commercial mail-receiving agency, nor shall he open or maintain a post office box, without the prior approval of the Probation Officer.
17. Defendant shall not frequent, or loiter, within 100 feet of school yards, parks, public swimming pools, playgrounds, youth centers, video arcade facilities, or other places primarily used by persons under the age of 18.
18. Defendant shall not associate or have verbal, written, telephonic, or electronic communication with any person under the age of 18, except: (a) in the presence of the parent or legal guardian of said minor; and (b) on the condition that defendant notify said parent or legal guardian of his conviction in the instant offense/prior offense. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18, such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, etc., with whom defendant must deal with in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.
19. Defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, volunteer and/or be employed in any capacity by a business and/or organization that causes him to regularly contact persons under the age of 18.
20. Defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, or be employed in any capacity by a business whose principal product is the production or selling of materials depicting and/or describing "sexually explicit conduct", as defined at Title 18, United States Code, § 2256(2).
21. Defendant's employment shall be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in employment must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall submit the name and address of the proposed employer to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled change.
22. Defendant shall not reside within direct view of school yards, parks, public swimming pools, playgrounds, youth centers, video arcade facilities, or other places primarily used by persons under the age of 18. Defendant's residence shall be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in residence must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall submit the address of the proposed residence to the Probation Officer at least ten days prior to any scheduled move.

Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. All fines are waived as the Court finds that defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Upon motion by the government, Counts One and Two of the Indictment are hereby dismissed. Defendant's bond is ordered exonerated.

USA vs. JESSE FERNANDO PEREZDocket No.: CR 15-0533-FMO

The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
